WILDERNESS CANOE TRIP - LOG

KEITH CARPENTER

SUNDAY JUNE 6

Left the Base about 7:00 AM. we had good weather left moose traps by Prairie Portage stopped at the ranger cabin to get fishing license then portaged, fairly long portage from Sunday, bunked left over - very long portage (3 miles) almost finished there. portaged from meadows to agnas, camped near horses fall for the night.

MONDAY JUNE 7

Left the falls about 10:00 AM. saw a spring with ice in it (took pictures) reached island about 3:00 PM. Monday camped there for the night.

TUESDAY JUNE 8

Slept late, fished in the morning and in the afternoon went hunting for the painted rocks but didn't find them, we saw an indian grave and saw a lake with the name, got back to camp about 6:00 PM.

WEDNESDAY JUNE 9

Started out about 9:00 AM. portaged into silence then to summer, shade and west lake, saw the deer at dinner time, camped on an island.

in north bay, saw many beaver dams during the day.

THURSDAY JUNE 10

Started about 9:00 AM from north bay and went into basswood lake, saw a fawn on the island we ate dinner on,
went down basswood and looked at a lumber camp, arrived at the ranger cabin
in time to see the plane take off.
we portaged into wind. Lake and camped on a island that night.
we heard wolves howling and Vis
Linné caught a 6 lb weasle.

FRIDAY JUNE 11

Started about 8:30 AM. and portage into Moose lake and reached the base about 11:00 AM, we ate dinner
and left for home.
