LOG

8/10/43

Tuesday: Left Rochester at 5:00 a. m. in a bus.

Stopped at Virginia, Minn. at 1:15 P. m. arrived at canoe base at 2:00 P. m. Camped for the night at Base.

8/11/43

Wednesday: arose at 7:00 a. m. Packed our duffle and met our guide Mr. Edwin Woolverton. Left in our canoe at 8:30 a. m. on Moose Lake.

Paddled through newfound, Sucker, had first portage at Prairie portage which went into Basswood. Went to a state cabin for our fishing license which was $1.00. Basswood to Burke for second portage. Then to Sunday for third portage, where we had dinner.

Sunday Lake to the fourth portage which was a tough, long portage which led us into Meadows. Paddled to Agnes for 5th portage which was a small portage. Swam in the falls of Agnes. Portage was a steep one which went over beside the falls into a calm creek.

Next went to Lake Louisa and had lunch and slept for the night. We camped on North end of Lake.

8/12/43

Thursday: Stayed all of next day on Northern part of Lake Louisa. Fishing no good. Ed explored for new portage into Glacier Lake,
 but he had no luck.

8/13/43

Friday: Broke camp and started down Lake Louisa against a strong wind and high waves. Went back up Agnes and stopped half way up and camped for the day. Fishing a little better.

8/14/43

Saturday: Left Agnes and went into Silence and made one portage and camped on Lake Summer. Fishing was excellent, caught enough for a few more meals.

8/15/43

Sunday: Left Summer, portaged into Noon Lake and went down to Shad Lake. That night had a tough time, paddling up North Bay in the moonlight. Camped at point of North Bay.

8/16/43

Monday: Started out early on Monday morning and made a soil which took us the rest of the way home. We arrived at the base at 4:30 P.M. Checked in and left at 5:30 P.M. Stopped at Cly for supper. Then went on to Virginia for the rest of the night.
